PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

BE A PART OF CLEAN YOUR FILES DAY IN THE CITY OF GREENVILLE

Here's your chance to purge those cluttered file cabinets and join the recycling effort!

On Friday, April 20, 2001, the City of Greenville will be picking up bags of recyclable paper set out on the curb between 6:00 and 9:00 a.m. in celebration of "Clean Your Files Day" a national effort to clean up the environment.

The "Clean Your Files Day" event is designed to make office workers more aware of the need to recycle in the workplace. The City's Recycling Coordinator is asking large office buildings, small retail firms, banks or any places of business to purge their files of unwanted papers that could eventually end up in the county landfill.

Employers, office managers and individuals interested in participating can call Vickie Williams, the City's Recycling Coordinator at 467-8300 for detailed information.
